"SOWING THE WIND"

Evidence and certainty may not agree. Circumstances alter cases, especially legal cases. "In 'Sowing the Wind'" there is much evidence of a man's seeming guilt, but he is not guilty. It is for you to say who's guilty. See this picture at the Pastime today. In addition "The Japanese Mask," a special three-reel feature, will be shown. This is one of the most wonderful photoplays that has been in Maysville in a long time.

OUR COLORED CITIZENS

Harry Taylor, 25, of Lewisburg, and Ida Stokes, 18, of this city, both colored were married in the County Clerk's Office Saturday afternoon by County Judge W. H. Rice.

There will be a call meeting of Pride of Mason Lodge No. 79, K. of P. tonight at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend. Business of importance.
